“What the Family Lawyer Needs to Know about Bankruptcy”
Judge Allan Koschik, United States Bankruptcy Court
Northern District of Ohio
Jill Friedman Helfman, Cleveland, Ohio
Most experts are anticipating on onslaught of bankruptcy filings over the next year. Judge Allan Koschik and Jill Friedman Helfman will address bankruptcy and divorce cases, including if, when and how clients should file, the impact upon property settlement and support obligations, exempt property considerations and how to manage the interplay between bankruptcy and domestic relations courts.

1:45 p.m.— 2:45 p.m.
“How to Help Clients Talk so Their Kids will Listen”
Julie King, Tiburon, California
Every day family lawyers provide advice to clients to help them guide their children through separation and divorce, but do family lawyers really understand what clients should say to their children? Ms. King is a lawyer, parent educator and co-author of the best seller, How to Talk So Little Kids Will Listen, published by Simon & Schuster. Her interactive presentation will provide practical advice to help lawyers guide their clients.
