Gary J. Gottfried, JD (Westerville, OH)

Mr. Gottfried will present his can't miss case law update on all decisions of relevance or interest over the past year.

9:30 a.m. — 11:00 a.m.

OK Computer: Cutting Edge Evidence

Jessica Janicek, JD and Heather King, JD (Southlake, TX)

The concepts of evidence have continued to evolve and become more complicated. The proliferation of social media, the technological aspects of communications and the options for tracking same and non-verbal communication (i.e. emojis, emoticons, gifs, etc.) make this a constantly changing landscape. Effectively using evidence in family law cases is a must for successfully presenting your case. This presentation focuses on the Federal Rules of Evidence that are widely applicable across the United States to help practitioners admit or exclude evidence.

11:00 a.m. — 11:15 a.m. Morning Break

11:15 a.m. — 12:15 p.m.

A Matter of Trust: Best Laid Plans in Estate Planning

Whitney B. Maxson, JD and Tim Tepe, JD (Cincinnati, OH)

What makes great sense in estate planning while married can wreak havoc when the marriage falls apart. This session will focus on the various estate planning vehicles that may be present in a marital estate and the tensions between estate planning and tax law against the concepts of marital and separate property. In addition to exploring the possible legal effects of such planning as it pertains to division of property and support, this session will explore options when trusts, family partnerships and other estate planning vehicles are involved.

12:15 p.m. — 1:00 p.m. Lunch Break

1:00 p.m. — 1:15 p.m.

Friedman Professionalism Award

Presentation of this year's Friedman Professionalism Award by AAML Ohio Chapter.

1:15 p.m.— 2:45 p.m.

All You Need is Love: Equal Protection for Non-Traditional Families

Diana Adams, JD (New York, NY)

Mx. Adams discusses how all families, regardless of biological relationship or legal marriage, are deserving of equal legal rights and recognition. They will present a vision for how US laws can benefit all families--from the same sex bonds to multi-parent partnership--and explain options for the family lawyer to provide legal protection for that family.

2:45 p.m. — 3:00 p.m. Afternoon Break

3:00 p.m.— 4:30 p.m.

Just the Two of Us: Splitting Time After Splitting Up

Kiilu Davis, JD (Scottsdale, AZ) Corinne Hoover Six, JD (Akron, OH) Honorable James Brown (Franklin Cty)

Honorable Diane Palos (Cuyahoga Cty) and Honorable Cynthia Martin (Greene Cty)

Mr. Davis will present on the ever changing landscape and culture of Equal Parenting Time Plans--and how Arizona has approached the issue. Turning our attention closer to home, with several legislative bills seeking to presume a 50/50 parenting time schedule, we will review the status of the legislation and considerations as to the implementation of such new laws with a panel of local judges.

4:30 p.m.— 5:00 p.m.
